We return with a new edition featuring a 100% updated syllabus and a strategic vision that is more powerful than ever

The previous editions of the Football Law course brought together an exceptional and unrivaled ecosystem of professionals specialised in the football industry. From lawyers at top-tier international firms and registered agents to club executives, these events created a unique environment for high-level exchange. They were not just courses; they established themselves as the meeting point where the legal sector and market intermediaries connected to redefine the rules of the game.

We feature an unrivaled faculty, composed of partners from the firms that dominate the transfer market and dispute resolution landscape. Leading figures in the sector have shared not only theory but their real-world strategies in high-stakes operations and cases before FIFA tribunals.

The feedback has been unanimous: a radically practical approach. Participants value the faculty's ability to translate complex regulatory concepts into clear strategies. This training is designed to be technically rigorous for the lawyer, yet commercially actionable for the agent, ensuring that both professionals speak the same business language.

"What truly sets this course apart is the interaction with world-class speakers and peers."
